

Ryan Curry focuses his practice in complex and commercial litigation. As a former criminal defense attorney, he has handled nearly 1000 cases, serving as first chair for over 30 jury trials and well over 100 bench trials. Ryan brings to the firm the same abilities to defend clients throughout the state.

Ryan graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Marketing and International Business in 2001, then received his M.B.A. from Baylor University in 2003, and received his J.D. from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law (Now, Texas A&M University School of Law) in 2007.
